Details

Looking for a chili pepper that adds both bright, eye-catching color and unbeatable mild, tangy flavor? These Del Sol mild banana pepper rings make the perfect topping or ingredient for your dining service! Conveniently pre-sliced into bite-size rings, they make wonderfully flavorful toppings for cool salads or hearty subs and sandwiches, while delivering just the right amount of heat. They'll also save your kitchen staff valuable time preparing and slicing. With a fun, vivid yellow color, banana pepper rings add visual appeal to your dishes while providing the distinctively refreshing and crisp taste that your customers know and love!

Use these banana pepper rings to add flavor and just a hint of heat to meats, poultry, and vegetarian dishes alike. Try topping hot dogs or crispy pizzas with banana pepper rings, or add them to smoky barbequed pork or steak sandwiches for irresistible menu offerings. Include these peppers in popular Mexican-style favorites, like nachos or taco salads, or use them to create zesty new dishes!

Carefully grown in the valleys of northern Mexico, Del Sol's banana peppers are picked at their peak of ripeness for maximum quality. Because they are packed into containers the same day that they are harvested, you receive only the freshest peppers to complement your dishes.
